

Chinese culture, art carnival at UMS

BP 19.4.2018 5

KOTA KINABALU: The Secretariat of Chinese Culture and Art kick-started the 7th Pesta Tiong Hua Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS) Carnival yesterday.

The three-day event will be open to the public as well as UMS students and it will be held at Padang Kawad (Parade Square) UMS.

The event seeks to introduce the Chinese tradition and culture in the form of an cultural event to let more people have more understanding about the beauty of Chinese culture.

Various activities will be held such as 'UMS The Anonymous Singing Competition' and 'UMS Chinese Calligraphy Competition'.

There will also be exhibitions on Chinese myth in comic form, Chinese sand table, Chinese mask of Peking Opera, Chinese weapons, China's four great inventions and many more.

Meanwhile, the night sessions will feature different performances, namely, wushu, music performance and lion dance.