KOTA KINABALU: Sabah Skills & Technology Centre (SSTC) and the UMS Investment Holdings Sdn Bhd have entered into a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) on training.

The MoU was signed by Director of Sabah Skills & Technology Centre; Natalie Fung and Group Chief Executive Officer of UMS Investment Holdings Sdn Bhd; Ramlan Awang Ali at SSTC located at the Kota Kinabalu Industrial Park, recently.

The major thrust of the MoU encompasses the development of learning materials by SSTC, joint research in mutual areas of interest and joint offering of industry based skill programmes.

The MoU aims to validate and certify SSTC programmes such as Certification of Plantation Management and Certification of Agribusiness Management by UNIVEST.

SSTC and UNIVEST share the common vision to provide quality and affordable education and training hence creating new learning opportunities for a global learning community.

Both institutions aim to continually improve and enhance the educational, training and research activities thus creating a mutually beneficial working relationship that will further promote advancement and growth of their respective institutions.
