KOTA KINABALU: Various initiatives are planned and ongoing for University Malaysia Sabah (UMS) in pursuit of transformation and Industrial Revolution (IR) 4.0, said UMS Vice Chancellor Prof Datuk Dr D Kamarudin D Mudin.

He said among them are the development of a digital campus and the redesign of undergraduates' curriculum to meet the needs of IR 4.0.

"The cooperation between academia and the industry such as Huawei is important in helping UMS to realise the IR 4.0 agenda," he said during the Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) signing between UMS and Huawei in Kuala Lumpur, on Friday.

Deputy Prime Minister Datuk Seri Ahmad Zahid Hamidi, International Trade and Industry Minister II Datuk Seri Ong Ka Chuan and Huawei Rotating Executive Officer Guo Ping witnessed the MoU exchange between the two parties (pic).

UMS was represented by Kamarudin, while Huawei Technologies (Malaysia) was represented by its Chief Executive Officer Abraham Liu Kang.

The MoU recognised the cooperation between UMS and Huawei in several fields, including the development of a smart campus.

Kamarudin said he hoped the cooperation would also increase the capacity and ability of UMS to face the IR 4.0 era.
