KOTA KINABALU: The spirit of helping each other should be practised among Malaysians to achieve better unity, said Minister of Special Tasks Datuk Teo Chee Kang.

He believed that closer unity among the multiracial community in Malaysia was important for our country's success.

Teo said that when officiating at Universiti Malaysia Sabah's (UMS) Pesta Tiong Hua, themed 'Xiang Ru Yi Mo', or the spirit of helping each other, here on Saturday.

He said the spirit of lending each other a helping hand should be applied to every relationship, including family, friendship and love.

"I am sure this concept of helping each other out is practised in the process of organizing the festival," he said.

Teo added that the festival also enabled other races to learn more about the Chinese culture in Malaysia.
