

New UMS Labuan students complete orientation

LABUAN: Five hundred new University Malaysia Sabah (UMS) students, including 29 from China and four from Turkey, completed their orientation week on Saturday.

UMS Labuan International Campus director Associate Professor Dr Shariff Abdul Kadir Omang Al-Haj advised the freshies at the closing ceremony of the orientation week to be proud for being chosen to study at the university as the entry to higher learning of institutions was very competitive.

He said the journey ahead would be full of challenges for them and they should fully utilise the three years here to study properly.

The ceremony was officiated by Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Students Affairs and Alumni) Associate Professor Dr Kassim Mansur.

The new students are studying at the Labuan School of International Business and Finance and Labuan School of Informatics Science.

Also present were UMS registrar Abdullah Mohd Said, Labuan School of International Business dean Dr Rosita Chong Abdullah and Labuan School of Informatics Science dean Dr Awang Asri Awang Ibrahim.

From right, Dr Shariff, Dr Kassim and Abdullah talking to the new students.

Registration of courses at the computer laboratory.

The new students taking part in an exercise to build up rapport.