

UMS staff and students in a group photo after the gotong-royong.

UMS clean-up via gotong-royong

KOTA KINABALU: Some 200 staff and students of the Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS) Faculty of Business, Economics and Accountancy (FPEP) implemented the "Gayang Royong Perdana Sayangi UMS, Sayangi FPEP" Programme at the faculty recently.

FPEP Dean, Assoc Prof Dr Raman Noordin said the programme, among others, was to foster awareness of the importance of maintaining cleanliness and creating a conducive environment through the spirit of cooperation and mutual help.

"Specifically, this programme is a student initiative of the Association of Business, Economics and Accounting Students (PMPEP).

"But, I fully support this initiative and hope that such programme will continue to be intensified in future. Well done and congratulations," he said when speaking at the programme.

During the programme, students and staff cleaned the inside and outside of the faculty building including drainage areas and remote corners.

Also present were Deputy Dean (Student Affairs and Postgraduate) FPEP Dr Kamisan Pusiran, Program Chairman Eugene Leong dan PMEP President Gan Chee Houe.