KOTA KINABALU: The Yang Dipertua Negeri, Tun Juhar Mahiruddin, received a courtesy call from the Vice Chancellor of Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS), Professor Datuk Dr Taufiq Yap Yun, at the Istana Negeri on Monday.

Taufiq said that the purpose of the visit was to inform the Head of State about current developments in UMS, including the establishment of three new faculties, namely the Faculty of Tropical Forestry, Faculty of Islamic Studies and Academic Arts and Creative Technology.

He also informed Juhar about the UMS Vaccination Center which is now open for walk-in and has an allocation of 3,000 doses of vaccine a day.

Earlier, the chairman of the Sandakan Headmaster Council, Awang Damit Ayob, also paid a courtesy call on Tun Juhar to introduce the newly appointed members and discuss the role of the council in improving the standard of education at the Sandakan district level.
